

Guided learning Assignment 1

1. `<command_name> -- help` ->Get help for a command when required
2. `pwd` ->Shows present working directory
3. `ls` ->Prints all the files in the current directory
4. `cd` ->Change the current directory to a specific directory
5. `mv` ->Move files to different directories. Also used to rename a file
6. `cp` ->copy files from one location to another
7. `rm` ->Used for deleting a file or directory
8. `mkdir` ->Used to create a directory
9. `rmdir` ->Used to delete a directory
10. `cat` ->Prints the contents of the file to terminal
11. `touch` ->Change file timestamps
12. `sudo` ->aids to perform certain tasks which require administrative permission
13. `find` ->Command searches for a folder hierarchy
14. `grep` ->Prints all the lines which match a specific pattern
15. `df` ->Estimates file disk system usage
16. `du` ->Estimates file space usage
17. `uname` ->Prints system information
18. `who` ->Get information about currently logged in user
19. `history` ->Used to view all previously executed commands
20. `date` ->Used to display system date and time